Placing impact: Shaping our region's future

An interactive introduction to impact-oriented transfer and regional engagement.

The impact marketplace is an open space to explore how research connects with people, places, and perspectives.

Our region, our projects

01 Our region, our projects

Map ongoing projects and collaborations, explore open regional needs, and share how the Regional Scouts can support your work in the current and remaining JTC project phases.

Key questions

Which JTC transfer projects and collaborations are underway?

What challenges remain in the region?

How can the Regional Scouts support you right now and in the future?

Facilitator

Dr. Cornelia Deimer | Halle-Saalkreis

Christian Henicke | Anhalt-Bitterfeld

Katja Wendland | Burgenlandkreis

Thomas Ernst | Mansfeld-Südharz

Ideas, projects, impacts

02 Explore your impact pathway

Refine your impact vision. Map your pathway to impact. Explore different transfer pathways.

Key questions

How can my research contribute to the region and how can I create this impact?

Facilitator

Dr. Stephanie Jahn | JTC-Transfer

03 Prototype your research

Build a quick, tangible mini-model that showcases your research, using the simplest - or rather most - unexpected shapes and, if possible, linking it to regional relevance.

Key questions

How can I turn my research into a physical model in 20-minute? What is the simplest yet most surprising form that still conveys my core message?

Facilitator

Ines Schmiegel | JTC-Transfer

04 Your project in six dimensions: discover opportunities for impact

Discover where your project stands and where it could go next. Our six-dimensional framework supports you in reflecting on your ideas, identifying opportunities, and building a strong foundation for successful (research) transfer projects - at any stage of your project.

Key questions

Where is my (transfer) project today?

How can I strengthen its potential for impact?

Facilitator

Stefanie Zillessen | Transfer and Entrepreneurship Office, MLU

Funding and partnerships

05 Funding opportunities for your next step: research, transfer, innovation

We advise on funding programs that match your career plans and your topic, on how a proposal is built and budgeted, and on the MLU formalities between a finished draft and a submitted application.

Key questions

Which program fits my stage - doctorate / postdoc / first own group / build a start-up?

Which program fits my research/innovation interests?

How does an application actually work at MLU, and who does what? My last proposal was rejected. What now?

Facilitator

Moritz Bradler | Transfer and Entrepreneurship Office, MLU

Dr. Claudia Hübner | Research Funding and Cooperation, MLU

06 Enterprise Europe Network Sachsen-Anhalt: Innovate with SMEs

Saxony-Anhalt. EEN is part of the EU-funded Enterprise Europe Network, connecting researchers and small and medium-sized enterprises to build collaborations and drive innovation.

Key questions

How can I connect with SMEs?

How can I co-develop innovations with SMEs?

Facilitator

Anouk Kinzel | IHK Magdeburg

Sven Erichson | IHK Magdeburg

Impact spotlights

07 Impact spotlights

Four different ways of making research visible, accessible and impactful.

10:30 Daniel Wolter (A2) | Maria Gaudig (B3)

12:00 Sebastian Zimmermann (B5) | Jenny Steinhorst (C3)

Key question

How can research be translated into tangible forms that enable dialogue, application and impact?
